

What more do we have to give up as believers in Christ, do all of you in office truly believe that by taking from us Christian Radio you will win? God does not need the airwaves because he owns the air His message will go forth regardless.